3 CARRIER'S TARIFF

3.1 The provisions of the Carrier's applicable tariff, if any, are incorporated herein. Particular attention is drawn to the provisions therein, if any, relating to free storage time and to Container and vehicle demurrage. Copies of such provisions are obtainable from the Carrier or his agents upon request or, where applicable, from a government body with whom the tariff has been filed. In the case of inconsistency between this sea waybill and the applicable tariff, this sea waybill shall prevail.

4.1 Notwithstanding the application to this sea waybill of the Hague Rules, or the Hague-Visby Rules, or of any similar convention or legislation, this sea waybill is not negotiable and is not a document of title to the Goods.

5 SUB-CONTRACTING AND INDemnITY

5.1 The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract on any terms whatsoever the whole or any part of the Carriage and the Merchant agrees (to the extent that the Merchant is entitled to bring claims against Sub-Contractors) that any Sub-Contractor can, at its option, apply its own terms of contract with the Carrier to defend claims brought by the Merchant.

- that no claim or allegation shall be made against any Sub-Contractor whatsoever, whether directly or indirectly, which imposes or attempts to impose upon any Sub-Contractor any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods or the Carriage of the Goods, whether or not arising in contract, bailment, tort, negligence, breach of express or implied warranty or otherwise; and
  - if any claim or allegation should nevertheless be made against a Sub-Contractor, to Indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

6 CARRIER'S LIABILITY

6.1 Where the Carriage is Port to Port Transport:

(a) the period of responsibility of the Carrier for any loss or damage to the Goods shall commence only at the moment the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel and shall end when the Goods have been discharged from the Vessel.

(b) the liability of the Carrier for loss of or damage to the Goods shall be determined in accordance with any national law making the Hague Rules or Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable to bills of lading and if no such national law is compulsorily applicable, then in accordance with the Hague-Visby Rules (Clause 1-8 inclusive (excluding Article 3 rule 8)).

(c) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods while in its actual or constructive possession before loading or after discharge, however caused. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in case and to the extent that any applicable compulsory law provides to the contrary, the Carrier shall have the benefit of even rights, limitation and liberty in the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, or any other rules as applied by clause 6.2 during such additional compulsory period of responsibility, notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.

(d) if the Goods are discharged at a port other than the Port of Discharge or at a Place of Delivery instead of the Port of Discharge, and the Carrier in its absolute discretion accepts responsibility for the loss or damage to the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable to the Merchant for such loss or damage as if the ultimate destination agreed with the Merchant had been entered on the front side of this sea waybill as the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery.

6.2 Where the Carriage is Multimodal Transport and the Merchant can prove at what stage the loss or damage occurred:

- the liability of the Carrier shall be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which applies compulsorily to the relevant stage of the Multimodal Transport and to the Carriage of the Goods;
- there an international convention or national law does not apply compulsorily to the stage of the movement where the loss or damage occurred, any liability of the Carrier shall be determined by sub-clause 6.3.

6.3 Where the Carriage is Multimodal Transport but the Merchant cannot prove at what stage the loss or damage occurred or if this sub-clause applies pursuant to sub-clause 6.2:

- the Carrier shall be relieved of liability for any loss or damage if such loss or damage arose or resulted from:
  - the wrongful act or neglect of the Merchant or any Person acting on behalf of the Merchant other than the Carrier or its servant, agent or Sub-Contractor; or
  - the compliance with the provisions of any law, regulation, ordinance or order of a government or authority or any other force or circumstance;
  - the act of God, or of a defect, condition or packing in the case of Goods which, by their nature, are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed;
- handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by the Merchant, or any person acting on behalf of the Merchant;
- the inherent vice of the Goods;
- insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the Goods, coverings, or unit loadings;
- strikes or lockouts or stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general;
- an act, neglect or default of the Merchant or management of the Vessel occurring during carriage by water;
- fire, unless the fire was caused by the actual fault or privity of the Carrier or lack of exercise of due diligence to make the Vessel seaworthy, properly to man, equip and supply the Vessel or to make her fit and safe for the reception, carriage and preservation of the Goods; for which the Merchant shall have the burden of proof;
- a nuclear incident;
- any other cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid and the consequences whereof it could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(b) The burden of proof that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes, or events, specified in sub-clause 6.3 (a) shall rest upon the Carrier. When the Carrier establishes that in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes, or events, specified in sub-clause 6.3 (a), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The claimant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of these causes or events.

(c) Where the loss or damage was partly caused by one of the causes at sub-clause 6.3 (a) the Carrier shall only be liable to the extent that another cause contributed to the loss or damage.

6.4 Compensation and Limitation

(a) Subject to the Carrier's right to limit liability as provided for within this sea waybill, the Carrier's liability shall be calculated by reference to the value of the Goods at the place and time at which they were accepted for Carriage.

(b) Where the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or any other rules compulsorily apply to the Carriage the Carrier's liability shall in no event exceed the amounts provided for in the applicable rules.

(c) In all other cases compensation shall not exceed the limitation of liability of 2 SDRs per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost, damaged or in respect of which the claim arises.

6.5 Time-bar

(a) Where the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or any other rules apply compulsorily to the Carriage, the time limit for bringing claims will be as prescribed by the applicable rules.

(b) In all other cases, the Carrier shall be discharged of all liability whatsoever unless suit is brought within nine months after the delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

6.6 Liability applicable to both kind of transport mode

- The Carrier shall be liable to the Merchant for an amount greater than the actual loss to the Person entitled to make the claim.
- Ad Valorem, declared value of Package or shipping unit. The Carrier's liability may be increased to a higher value by a declaration in writing of the value of the Goods by the Merchant upon delivery to the Carrier of the Goods for shipment, such higher value being inserted on the front of this sea waybill in the space provided and, if required by the Carrier, extra freight being paid. In such case, if the actual value of the Goods shall exceed such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the actual value of the Goods and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

(c) Delay, Compensational Loss Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier does not undertake that the Goods shall arrive at any place at any particular time and shall in no circumstances be liable for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay or in any other cause whatsoever and howsoever caused. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if the Carrier is found liable for delay, liability shall be limited to the Freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport.

(d) Notice of Loss or Damage The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this sea waybill unless notice of loss of, or damage to, the Goods, indicating the general nature of such loss or damage, shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to his representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the Person entitled to delivery thereof under this sea waybill or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three consecutive days thereafter.

(e) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this sea waybill shall apply in any action against the Carrier whether the action be found in contract, bailment, tort, breach of express or implied warranty or otherwise.

(f) The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against any claim or liability (and any expense arising therefrom) arising from the Carriage of the Goods insofar as such claim or liability exceeds the Carrier's liability under this sea waybill.

7 MERCHANT'S WARRANTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1 Every Person defined as Merchant is jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for all the Merchant's undertakings, responsibilities and liabilities under or in connection with this sea waybill and to pay the Freight due under it without deduction or set-off.

7.5 The Merchant undertakes that the Goods are packed in a manner adequate to withstand the ordinary risks of Carriage having regard to their nature and in compliance with all laws, regulations and requirements which may be applicable. The Merchant shall be liable for any loss, damage or injury caused by faulty or insufficient packing or for faulty loading or packing within Containers when such loading or packing has been performed by the Merchant or on behalf of the Merchant, or by the defect or unsuitability of the Containers when supplied by the Merchant, and shall Indemnify the Carrier against any additional expenses so caused.

7.6 Any Container released into the care of the Merchant for packing, unpacking or any other purpose whatsoever shall be at the sole risk of the Merchant until proper delivery to the Carrier at the time and place prescribed by the Carrier. If the Merchant fails to deliver the Container at such prescribed time and place, the Merchant shall pay the Carrier the applicable demurrage or detention charges arising therefrom. The Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Container, with interiors brushed and clean, to the point or place designated by the Carrier, his servants or agents. The Merchant shall be liable for any charges, losses or any other expenses arising therefrom. The Merchant shall be responsible for any loss and/or damage to, and any liabilities caused or incurred by such Container whilst in the use and/or control of the Merchant.

- the Carrier's express consent in writing; and
- the Container and/or other covering in which the Goods are to be transported and/or the Goods themselves being distinctly marked on the outside so as to indicate the nature and character of any such Goods and so as to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and/or requirements.

8.2 If the Merchant fails to provide such information and the Carrier is unaware of the dangerous nature of the Goods and the necessary precautions to be taken and if, at any time, they are deemed to be a hazard to life or property, they may at any place be unloaded, destroyed or rendered harmless, as may be necessary.

circumstances may require, without compensation, and the Merchant shall be liable for all loss, damage, delay or expenses arising from the Carriage. The burden of proof that the Carrier knew the exact nature of the danger constituted by the carriage of the Goods shall rest upon the Merchant.

8.3 The Merchant shall comply with rules which are mandatory according to the national law or by reason of international convention, relating to the carriage of Goods of a dangerous nature with the knowledge of the Carrier. If any such Goods are found to be dangerous to their dangerous nature shall become a danger to the ship or cargo, they may in like manner be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the Carrier without liability on the part of the Carrier except to General Average, if any.

8.4 The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, claim, liability or expense whatsoever arising from any breach of the provisions of this clause 8 or from any cause in connection with the Goods for which the Carrier is not responsible.

- caused by the unsuitability of the Goods for carriage actually used;
- caused by the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container actually used provided that where the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this paragraph (c) shall only apply if the unsuitability or defective condition would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at the time when the Container was stuffed;
- if the Container is not sealed at the commencement of the Carriage except where the Carrier has agreed to seal the Container.

9.4 Where the Carrier is instructed to provide a Container, in the absence of a written request to the contrary accepted by the Carrier, the Carrier is not under an obligation to provide a Container of any particular type or quality.

9.5 Goods stored in closed containers other than flats or pallets, whether by the Carrier or the Merchant, may be carried on deck, on an open lorry, on an open trailer, or an open railway wagon without notice to the Merchant. Such Goods, whether or not so carried, shall participate in General Average and shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for the purposes of the Hague Rules and Hague-Visby Rules.

9.6 The provisions of clause 6 also apply with respect to trailers, transportable tanks, flats and pallets which have not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier.

9.7 The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, claim, liability or expense whatsoever arising from any breach of the provisions of this clause 9 or from any cause in connection with the Goods for which the Carrier is not responsible.

10.3 If the Carrier shall incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or continue the Carriage thereof, and/or to seal or dispose of the Goods and/or to abandon the Carriage and/or to store the Goods ashore or afloat, under cover or in the open, at any place, whichever the Carrier in his absolute discretion considers most appropriate, such sale, disposal, abandonment or storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this sea waybill. The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expense so incurred.

- the Carrier shall not be under any obligation to provide any plant, power or labour which may be required for the loading or unloading of such premises. This shall be the responsibility of the Merchant at his own risk and expense.

14.2 If the Merchant incurs any expense or liability in respect of any claim or expense given entirely at the Merchant's risk as to damage to or loss of Goods or injury to Persons.

14.2 If at any time the Carriage is or is likely to be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of any kind (including the condition of the Goods), whenever and howsoever arising (whether or not the Carriage has commenced) the Carrier may:

- without notice to the Merchant abandon the Carriage of the Goods and where reasonably possible place the Goods or any part of them at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier deems safe and convenient, notwithstanding that any charges, dues or other expenses may be or become payable;

If it is, or would be, other than at the request of the Merchant, in circumstances where the Goods or that part thereof so discharged could have been discharged ashore without additional delay, the Goods (or part thereof, as the case may be) shall nevertheless not be deemed to be discharged for the purposes of this clause until they are discharged from such craft, whereupon delivery shall be deemed to have been made and the responsibility of the Carrier in respect of such Goods shall cease;

(b) without prejudice to the Carrier's right to subsequently abandon the Carriage under Clause 14.2 (a) above, continue the Carriage.

This shall amount to due delivery to the Merchant.

14.4 The Merchant incurs any expense or liability in respect of any claim or expense given entirely at the Merchant's risk as to damage to or loss of Goods or injury to Persons.

14.5 If delivery of the Goods or any part thereof is not taken by the Merchant at the time and place when and where the Carrier is entitled to call upon the Merchant to take delivery thereof, the Carrier shall be entitled and without prejudice to any other rights that he may have against the Merchant without notice to remove from a Container the Goods or that part thereof if Consolidated in or on a Container and to store the Goods or that part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or Sub-Contractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier.
