6 CARRIER'S LIABILITY

6.1 Where the Carriage is Port to Port Transport:

(a) the period of responsibility of the Carrier for any loss or damage to the Goods shall commence only at the moment the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel and shall end when the Goods have been discharged from the Vessel.

(b) the liability of the Carrier for loss of or damage to the Goods shall be determined in accordance with any national law making the Hague Rules or Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable to bills of lading and if no such national law is compulsorily applicable, then in accordance with the Hague-Visby Rules (Clause 1-8 inclusive (excluding Article 3 rule 8)).

(c) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods while in its actual or constructive possession before loading or after discharge, howsoever caused. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in case and to the extent that any applicable compulsory law provides to the contrary, the Carrier shall have the benefit of even rights, limitation and liberty in the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, or any other rules as applied by clause 6.2 during such additional compulsory period of responsibility, notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.

(d) if the Goods are discharged at a port other than the Port of Discharge or at a Place of Delivery instead of the Port of Discharge, and the Carrier in its absolute discretion accepts the responsibility for the loss or damage to the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable to the Merchant for such loss or damage as if the ultimate destination agreed with the Merchant had been entered on the front side of this sea waybill as the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery.

6.2 Where the Carriage is Multimodal Transport and the Merchant can prove at what stage the loss or damage occurred:

- the liability of the Carrier shall be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which applies compulsorily to the relevant stage of the Multimodal Transport and to the Carriage of the Goods under this sea waybill;
- there an international convention or national law does not apply compulsorily to the stage of the movement where the loss or damage occurred, any liability of the Carrier shall be determined by sub-clause 6.3.

6.3 Where the Carriage is Multimodal Transport but the Merchant cannot prove at what stage the loss or damage occurred or if this sub-clause applies pursuant to sub-clause 6.2:

- the Carrier shall be relieved of liability for any loss or damage if such loss or damage arose or resulted from:
 - the wrongful act or neglect of the Merchant or any Person acting on behalf of the Merchant other than the Carrier or its servant, agent or Sub-Contractor; or
 - the compliance with the provisions of the Customs, Imposition and Liberty in the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, or any other rules as applied by clause 6.2;
 - the lack of, or defective condition of packing in the case of Goods which, by their nature, are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed;
- handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by the Merchant, or any person acting on behalf of the Merchant;
- the inherent vice of the Goods;
- insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the Goods, coverings, or unit loads;
- strikes or lockouts or stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general;
- an act, neglect or default of the Merchant or the management of the Vessel occurring during carriage by water;
- fire, unless the fire was caused by the actual fault or privity of the Carrier or lack of exercise of due diligence to make the Vessel seaworthy, properly to man, equip and supply the Vessel or to make her fit and safe for the reception, carriage and preservation of the Goods; for which the Merchant shall have the burden of proof;
- a nuclear incident;
- any other cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid and the consequences whereof it could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(b) The burden of proof that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes, or events, specified in sub-clause 6.3 (a) shall rest upon the Carrier. When the Carrier establishes that in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes, or events, specified in sub-clause 6.3 (a), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The claimant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of these causes or events.

(c) Where the loss or damage was partly caused by one of the causes at sub-clause 6.3 (a) the Carrier shall only be liable to the extent that another cause contributed to the loss or damage.

6.4 Compensation and Limitation

(a) Subject to the Carrier's right to limit liability as provided for within this sea waybill, the Carrier's liability shall be calculated by reference to the value of the Goods at the place and time at which they were accepted for Carriage.

(b) Where the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or any other rules compulsorily apply to the Carriage the Carrier's liability shall in no event exceed the amounts provided for in the applicable rules.

(c) In all other cases compensation shall not exceed the limitation of liability of 2 SDRs per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost, damaged or in respect of which the claim arises.

6.5 Time-bar

(a) Where the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or any other rules apply compulsorily to the Carriage, the time limit for bringing claims will be as prescribed by the applicable rules.

(b) In all other cases, the Carrier shall be discharged of all liability whatsoever unless suit is brought within nine months after the delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

6.6 Liability applicable to both kind of transport mode

- The Carrier shall be liable to the Merchant for an amount greater than the actual loss to the Person entitled to make the claim.
- Ad Valorem, declared value of Package or shipping unit. The Carrier's liability may be increased to a higher value by a declaration in writing of the value of the Goods by the Merchant upon delivery to the Carrier of the Goods for shipment, such higher value being inserted on the front of this sea waybill in the space provided and, if required by the Carrier, extra freight being paid. In such case, if the actual value of the Goods shall exceed such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the actual value of the Goods and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

(c) Delay, Compensational Loss Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier does not undertake that the Goods shall arrive at any place at any particular time and shall in no circumstances be liable for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay or in any other cause whatsoever and howsoever caused. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if the Carrier is found liable for delay, liability shall be limited to the Freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport.

(d) Notice of Loss or Damage The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this sea waybill unless notice of loss of, or damage to, the Goods, indicating the general nature of such loss or damage, shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to his representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the Person entitled to delivery thereof under this sea waybill or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three consecutive days thereafter.

(e) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this sea waybill shall apply in any action against the Carrier whether the action be found in contract, bailment, tort, breach of express or implied warranty or otherwise.

(f) The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against any claim or liability (and any expense arising therefrom) arising from the Carriage of the Goods insofar as such claim or liability exceeds the Carrier's liability under this sea waybill.

7 MERCHANT'S WARRANTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

7.6 Any Container released into the care of the Merchant for packing, unpacking or any other purpose whatsoever shall be at the sole risk of the Merchant until proper delivery to the Carrier at the time and place prescribed by the Carrier.
